Different Essays Made

There are four different patterns to organize the essays :

1- Logical division of ideas :

- This pattern, you divide your topic into subtopics and then discuss each subtopic in a separate paragraph.
- Logical division is an appropriate pattern for explaining causes, reasons, types, kinds, qualities, methods, advantages, and disadvantages .
- Link paragraphs with transition like :first, second, next, last, in addition, and, both, another way , one problem, an additional result , etc .
- Prepare an outline to organize your ideas before you begin to write.

2- Chronological order :

- Chronological order is a way of organization ideas in the order of their occurrence in time .
- We use this pattern to write (stories, history, biography, and autobiography) , and for process essays .
- Following these three keys in writing a chronological essays will success the essays :
- 1- Group the events into paragraphs where natural breaks occur.
- 2- Write a thesis statement that indicates chronological order.
- 3- Use chronological order signals words and phrases to show the sequence of steps or events , for example : first, after that, meanwhile, now, eventually, since, as soon as, in 2004, until .

3- Cause/Effect essays :

- Cause/effect organization is a common pattern in academic writing to write about causes(or reasons) and effects (or results) .
 - There are two common cause/effect patterns of organization :
 - 1- In block organization, the causes are grouped together in one block, and the effects are grouped together in another block . There may be a transition paragraph between blocks .
 - 2- In chain organization, the causes an effects are too closely linked to be separated. One cause leads to an effect, which is the cause of the next effect.
 - Using a variety of cause/effect signals words like : for, because, as, due to , as a result, so, to affect, etc will help the readers to follow the ideas.
