Fact check: 5 key parts of Oliver Stone's 'Snowden' biopic that don't match reality

Michael Kelley
 Michael B. Kelley September 13, 2016

Snowden lawyer Ben Wizner (L) and director Oliver Stone speak at the Brooklyn Public Library on September 11, 2016.

2) '3 weeks' at the Mira Hotel

The film shows Snowden meeting with Poitras, as well as journalists Glenn Greenwald and Ewen MacAskill, in early June 2013. On June 4, the phone rings in Snowden's hotel room. Asked if he had received a call before, Snowden answers: "Not once, not in three weeks."

The line is a minor one, but it belies what is known about Snowden's stay in Hong Kong. Specifically, Snowden reportedly checked into the hotel just days before that phone call.
