mother, as a grandmother, and as a candidate for public office, I want to demonstrate my understanding of the challenges young people face, in my area and all across the country, in this new and complex world. I have been studying the issues. I have been listening to the people. I know it is our time to put aside petty differences and work together for the good of the world."0 SHARES Share Tweet The world was stunned when the announcement of “Ponyville” was made. The pony world, (along with us) was in shock and had several questions.
How was such an elaborate art piece constructed? Who would work so hard to make such a complicated thing? Finally, we found out that the artist was none other than Jon Lapeyre. Jon Lapeyre is a self-taught artist, who based his whole work on the My Little Pony franchise.
He has always created art out of what he finds interesting. For example,
